NO MARRIED PRIESTS IN UNITED STATES

London, May 8.—According to the Milan correspondent of the Chronicle, the Vatican strongly opposes the protest of the Ruthenian Catholics in the United States against the withdrawal of the privilege of their priests to marry. The position of the Holy See is that while it allows the marriage concession to priests ministering in their native environment, it cannot concede the same right to Ruthenian missionaries going to minister in countries where the Latin rite holds sway. The Pope is all the more determined not to admit a compromise because the anti-celibacy movement is rapidly growing among the Roman Catholic clergy in Europe.

FAIRFIELD

Lady Minstrels—Assumed Names—Beach Items—Struck by Lightning—Meeting of Superintendents—Home Mission Supper—Personal Notes.

Those who attended the minstrel show given by the "dusky maidens" of Greenfield Hill at the Country Club, Friday night, speak of it as very amusing and filled with witty local hits and sparkling jokes. A good many folks from Southport, as well as the center, went to the entertainment, the evening being a charming one. Some 30 ladies belonging to the club participated in the event. Among other things the program contained piano solos, and numerous songs, such as Little Alabama Coon, Blind Pig, Under De Chickadee Tree, Just a Closer and Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay. There were a number of dances—Pigeon wing quadrille; Mr. Jigger, Slap Jack Dance, Tongue's Frolic, and a tamboley drill. Among the recitations were Auntie's Medley, and a skit called "Patchwork." The second part of the program contained the following songs: Meet me in the Rosetime, Rosie; Swim Out O'Grady; Naughty Eyes; Bake Dat Chicken Pie, Raining, Kentucky Rabe, and Stop Making Faces at Me. The ladies who formed the minstrel group assumed characteristic names, such as Liza Ann, Dusty, Callopie Crum, Martha George Washington, Angelina, Snowball, Susan Snickers, Frankie Freeheart, Melinda, Jane Brown, Dollie Doolittle, Parthenia Tongue, Dinah Wayback, Sally Lull, Fannie Funnibone, Euphemia Thunderclooud, Birdie Blennerhassett, and Miss Hammerhand.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Judd spent Thursday in New Haven. Four of the Nichols cottages on the beach are being overhauled and put in sanitary condition for the summer by Mr. Flannagan, the plumber. The Selectmen held a meeting yesterday at the Town Hall, going over the monthly accounts for auditing.

The book committee of the Library held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, to audit accounts and consider new books. There were present Rev. Mr. Beeman, Mrs. Wright, Mr. Sturges, and Dr. Child.

During the thunder shower early Friday morning the house of Mr. W. N. Pratt, of Holland Hill was struck by lightning. The bolt first hit a tree, and from it went into a nearby barn, where it destroyed one of the wheels of a wagon, ripping the wood work out from the tire. It then entered the dwelling house, doing, fortunately, but slight damage.

Mrs. George Pike of Wilton is building a new cottage at the Fairfield beach.

Mr. Drown has rented the house formerly occupied by Miss Banks, in Southport. He was unable to find a rent in the center of the town. All Williams is at his cottage on the beach for the summer.

Yesterday Supt. Wheatley went to Meriden to attend the meeting of the Public School Superintendents. The session was held in the High School building and there was a large attendance of superintendents from all parts of the state. Mr. Wheatley reports a very interesting time. The first address was by Supt. Wm. E. Chancellor of South Norwalk, on the duties of the Superintendents of Schools. He was followed by Supt. Edwin H. Forbes of Torrington, on the Teachers' Meeting. Other addresses were made by Miss Katherine T. Hay of Danbury; Supt. Geo. H. Tracy of Danbury; by DeWitt C. Allen, of Hartford on "What a Rural Superintendent should Do." Supt. William F. Kelly spoke about how the Superintendent can arrange to spend more time in the classroom.

Miss Katherine McCaffrey has just returned from a visit to Mrs. Chester Benedict, of New York.

There were but three deaths in town during the month of April, viz., Herman R. Seggel, aged 58; Joseph Edward Kovik, aged 3 years and Charles Kucsar, an infant of 8 months.

Carpenters were at work on the new building in the town hall fitting up for the accommodation of the public a much needed room.

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society held the last of their meetings and suppers at the Congregational church parlors on Thursday. There was a large attendance, and some $10 was received. Mrs. A. P. Wakeman presided at the head of one of the tables, pouring the tea, and Mrs. Brewer at the other. Among the gentlemen present were noticed Deacon Brewer, Deacon Deyo, Rev. Dr. Child, and others.

the secret of long life is moderation. i've lived a long time and i take two or three drinks of whiskey each day. my experience is that whiskey when taken that way acts as a mild tonic and prevents illness. good whiskey costs me no more than the other kind, because i specify the brand. for years i've been saying, "a little mark rogers, please." this whiskey is a splendid pure rye, thoroughly aged and mellow. it's very fine, and any one would have a hard time switching me to another brand. i always find mark rogers at the best places.
